ORDER GRANTING EX PARTE MOTION FOR ORDER SHORTENING TIME

These jointly administered cases come before the court on an ex parte motion filed by Professional Financial Investors, Inc. ("PFI") and the debtors in the other jointly administered cases (collectively, the "Debtors").<sup>1</sup> The Ex Parte Motion requests an expedited hearing on a separately filed motion,<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Dkt. 379 (the "Ex Parte Motion").

<sup>2</sup> Dkt. 378 (the "Motion").

1 which seeks authorization of an arrangement under which the 2 Debtors would obtain financing for premiums due on certain 3 insurance policies (the "Package Policies," as defined in the 4 Motion). Absent an expedited hearing and approval of the 5 proposed financing agreement, the insurance carrier has 6 threatened cancellation of the Package Policies on or about 7 February 10, 2021.

8 The court has analyzed the Ex Parte Motion, the Motion,
9 and the declarations and exhibits offered in support thereof
10 and finds that good cause justifies the relief sought in the Ex
11 Parte Motion. Accordingly, the court ORDERS as follows:

20 any of the parties have questions about court operations or 21 telephonic court appearances, they may contact the court by 22 calling 888-821-7606 or by using the Live Chat feature on the 23 court's website.

24 3. No later than Monday, February 1, 2021, Debtors shall 25 serve: (a) a copy of this order and (b) a copy of the Motion
26 and all supporting declarations and exhibits, on the Core
27 Service Parties identified in the Ex Parte Motion. Service

1 defined term "Core Service Parties and Methods" set forth in 2 the Ex Parte Motion. This order shall serve as a notice of 3 hearing; Debtors need not prepare, file, or serve a separate 4 notice of hearing.

5       4. No later than 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, February 3,
